

Betty Haycraft (left) received her award from Shelbyville's Administrator Debra Finneran

Masonic Home of Shelbyville Honors Volunteer of Year

Betty Haycraft was named the Masonic Home of Shelbyville's 2008 Volunteer of the Year.

"It has been said that volunteers do not get paid because they are priceless," said Masonic Home Executive Director and Administrator Debra Finneran. "Thanks to her, our Home is truly a home."

Haycraft has been a regular presence at Masonic Home for four years. She takes time to provide each resident with the materials needed for the day's project, and assists those who need an extra hand.

"Residents are waiting at the door on the days Betty is here," said Director of Activities Samantha Rucker. "They just love her!"

A member of Burks Branch Baptist Church, Haycraft also shares her time with the Homemakers Club.

About the Masonic Home of Shelbyville

Since 1901, the Masonic Home of Shelbyville has provided housing and service to seniors. Today, the Masonic Home of Shelbyville's award-winning staff offers assisted living, nursing care, personal care, rehabilitation therapies and short-term respite in a comfortable, active environment. The Masonic Home of Shelbyville is part of the Masonic Homes of Kentucky, a leader in senior living services since 1867. To learn more visit www.masonichomesky.com

# #