Celebrating our colors

More than 50 color guard units representing military, law enforcement, fraternal, scouting and civic organizations honored America's flag at the annual Masonic Homes of Kentucky Flag Day celebration.

About 200 Homes residents, neighbors and friends participated in the observance, the fifth Flag Day celebration held on the Louisville campus. The 2009 event was co-sponsored by the Louisville Scottish Rite. According to VP of Mission Advancement Phyllis O'Daniel, sponsoring the annual Flag Day event is a natural for both organizations. "It's a source of pride for all of us to share our respect for our country's greatest symbol of freedom with this community event."

Retired U.S. Navy and U.S. Coast Guard Capt. William Huston was honored for his dedicated service to America with the Homes' first Patriot award. Huston is now president of St. Catharine College near Springfield, Kentucky.

As part of the Parade of Colors, each color guard paid tribute to fallen heroes by placing small flags at a symbolic memorial.

Louisville jazz great Tanita Gaines performed The Star-Spangled Banner and other favorites, and led the crowd in God Bless America. The Kosair Brass Band provided musical accompaniment throughout the event.

Edward "Sonny" Johnson

Remembering a Brother

District 8 Ambassador Edward "Sonny" Johnson passed away on June 12th. He was a member of Leitchfield No. 236 and the Kosair Shriners.

A charter member of the Homes' District Ambassador program, Johnson was instrumental in helping District 8 lodges learn more about the Homes. "Sonny was a great asset to Masonic Homes of Kentucky," said VP of Fraternal Relations John Cauley. "He truly was the embodiment of our Masonic tenets."

Johnson was a fork truck operator for Ford Motor Company and served as a deacon in his church. Cherishing Johnson's memory are his wife Mary, two sons, two daughters, eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Worth a Thousand Words

Homes' Senior VP of Therapy Services Natalie Tinsley (left), VP of Independent Living Anne McAfee and Louisville Client Services Director Triva Daughtrey bought chances to throw pies at COO J Scott Judy. The pie throw joined a cake walk and other activities in support of Masonic Home of Louisville's 2009 Memory Walk team. The team's afternoon "fun-raiser" generated more than $650 for the Alzheimer's Association's annual Memory Walk.

CCO CJ Parrish (center) accepted more than 50 pounds of art supplies from Grand Messenger Kristin McCown (left) and Valley Assembly Mother Advisor Theresa Douglas during Rainbow for Girls 2009 Grand Assembly. Rainbow assemblies across Kentucky collected art supplies for Homes' residents as a service project led by Past Grand Worthy Advisor Rachel Pickett. Rainbow girls also have volunteered to work with Homes' residents in art projects using the supplies.

While the new Care Center is under construction outside, Masonic Home of Louisville resident Ed Westerman has construction projects of his own inside. Ed creates miniature farms, cabins and scenes from scrap wood and limbs found around campus, building each meticulously from scratch. He donates the mini masterpieces to children at Louisville's Home of the Innocents.

Masonic Home of Shelbyville's second annual Art Faire welcomed more than 40 artists to the campus. The event, co-sponsored by the Cultural Arts Guild of Shelby County, brought emerging and seasoned craftspeople to showcase their wares together. Residents, families and community members were entertained throughout the day by performing artists, while others demonstrated their media at booths.

CEO Gary Marsh (right) joined (from left) Leland Stewart, Bell Lodge #691, John Savells and Bill Easterling at the Masonic Home Alumni annual reunion. The two-day reunion drew nearly 150 former "home kids" and their families. To complete the homecoming, alumni visited the Louisville campus for a buffet breakfast in the old dining hall that is now The Olmsted. Many capped off the reunion by enjoying the campus where they grew up.
