

Long time volunteers, Ken and Mary Lou Ballard (center) were honored as Masonic Home of Louisville's Volunteers of the Year. Administrator Lori Hess (left) and Chaplain Tim Morrow congratulate them.

Masonic Home of Louisville Honors Volunteers of Year

Ken and Mary Lou Ballard were named Masonic Home of Louisville's 2009 Volunteer of the Year.

For more than 15 years, the Ballards have assisted with the Home's Wednesday evening church service, playing piano and singing with residents. According to Masonic Home Chaplain Tim Morrow, the couple helps residents find the spiritual guidance they need through music and worship.

"Ken and Mary Lou are staples to our resident's happiness at Masonic Home," said Morrow. "Their dedication and devotion to the residents makes them priceless."

About Masonic Home of Louisville

Founded in 1867 as a home for orphans and widows, Masonic Home of Louisville is a leader in senior living services providing personal care, skilled nursing care and short-stay rehabilitation therapies. It is the largest nursing facility in Jefferson County. For more information visit www.masonichomesky.com.