WHY | For the daily living and specialized services we offer to residents.

Charitable Care is the root of Masonic Homes Kentucky and its mission to improve the lives of everyone we serve. Masonic spends more than $4.1 million or $220 per day on charitable care for residents. Through generous donations, we can provide affordable housing, daily necessities, transportation, technology to keep the mind engaged and life enrichment programs for residents.

For more information contact Meg Williams, VP/ Mission Advancement at 502.753.8843 or mwilliams@masonicky.com.

YOUR GIFT

Your gift matters. Masonic prides itself in honoring the past, caring for the present and inspiring the future. What our donors give today is a legacy with long lasting impact.

Here's a few ways your donations help:

- affordable housing by reducing rent
- daily necessities like wheelchairs, glasses, hearing aids and clothing
- transportation for appointments
- baby buggies for Sproutlings
- technology that keeps the brain engaged
- life enriching programs and activities like well-stocked libraries, arts and crafts and cultural opportunities
